Lord Of The Last Day

Jorn Lande

I love the night So many shadows Unholy light Putting out the spark Leave 'em in the dark - forever Ooh

I can wait for you Your end is my life All lies are true Secrets of the heart And you can take them all - To heaven

I don't feel pain or sorrow The child's a man tomorrow Crossing the line - Then he's mine

Don't care which god you follow Whose promises you swallow Time and again We must meet at the end Aaah

It's all right When the music is over Come on and dance For the lord of the last day

I love the night So many shadows Unholy light Secrets of the heart Leave 'em in the dark Forever
