

Song for Ronnie James

Jorn Lande

There is a voice in the world full lonely
There is a fire in the heart of the king
And the broken ones will know
They are not the only
When he starts to sing

I turn to face the sun
When pain is calling
My mind is on the run
Another angel falling

The legend lives
Like a rainbow in the dark
For the children and runaway heart
When you dream evil
And your world is lost and blind
He will move your inner soul
With the sound of rock n'roll

It's rock and roll!

One more for the vision
Oh! Let's burn one more For the road
Speed at night! Yeah!
It's our fire of light
We are legion
And the legacy lives on
I must save the cristal ball
When the wizard starts to fall

I can hear the call

This is a song!!
This a song for ronnie james
We'll never lose it
The soul of music
Come join the family
All you children of the sea
Sail on forever and be a melody
Do you find it strange that somene wrote this song
But I feel the magic and
It makes me strong
Like the book of revelations
I will find my inspiration
You are always there to fall
In hell or heaven

One night in the city
Hear the master of the moon
Feel the power
Sending shivers cross the room
Neon knights of the darkness
They are hungry for rock
He will light their inner spark
He's a hunter of the heart

This is a song!!
When life is broken
His words are spoken
Come and join the family
We will make the whole world see
We rock forever
This is our destiny

I wrote this song
For the father of the sign!

Everyone should come together
We don't want to stand alone
Time will come
We must live as one
For the morning

Everyone should cry together
