

Carry The Black

Jorn

There's no light in my darkness only black Nothing blue with this sadness only black found no soul in the heartless only black I've tried to keep the light and fire but then black

Walk alone with your loneliness in the dark
Nothing new with this senselessness
But we must try to live again

The secret of time it will return
Someday a new world will learn the reason why Turning your life as it burns losing dreams in the fire
But dreams are made to change
And make us rearrange

Don't ever look back... no no
Just carry the black

In the day as I learned my way it went black
But I've been growing soul from sorrow now the feeling's back
God must be dead the sun is dying it's coming black Pray that the heart will break gently when

We fade from this life my friend in the dark
No more lies bring us down again
In the darkness
Let us dream till we reach the end
Far away far away
Lonely pain will be born again
So learn to race it like a man... yeah

Showers of rain will wash away
Leaving the pain to die to fade again
Promises led me astray
Burning my wings of desire
The crying wind will blow
To dry the tears I know

Can never go back... no
Got to carry the black... yeah
Down this one way track

Ooh can never go back... no no
Got to carry the black... yeah
In this endless tragedy Till the end we have to be and carry the black... ooh
