

When Angel Wings Were White

Jorn

I will believe... I will believe... I will believe
I will believe mother
I will believe sister
I will believe father
Can you believe brother... Ohhh

I will believe mother
I will believe sister
Even though my body fades
I still believe... Yeahhh
Keeping my hopes brother
Standing in line father
And the colors inside of me still painting
Stabbed by a spear Jesus
You rose from the grave for us
You took on our sins but still our Minds are black as coal... Yeahhh

Do you believe daughter
Can you receive little boy
Even though your life is fading
You must believe... Yeahhh
We're on the run father
Eating the land and I'm sorry
Reaching for God
But we always stumble and fall
Is there anybody out there
I wanna learn from them
Give me a signal
I just need to know... Need to know why

Hellborn... Hellspawn
Was there a time
When angels wings were white
So torn we're so worn
Was there a time
When angels wings were white

Keeping my hopes brother
Standing in line father
Can you hear me calling you
Can you hear
I will believe
