all my life

I've been waiting
wonder why

is it
now the time

make a dream arise

I
carry
You inside

burning deeply with desire

burn
your blazing fire

tremble through the night

Love
I already know

Your face
is already shown

why
do I have to go away

from my home

+ where will I go
where will I be

+ when will I know
when will I see
You

All I Am

All I Feel

All You Are

All I Will
