

Call

Joseph Arthur

Pick up your phone
I know you're home
I've been your friend
And I need you now

Last time we spoke
It was all good
With the passin' of time
Things get misunderstood

Put down your walls
Put down your walls
And call

Sometimes friends rust
When they forget how to trust
We hurt the most
The ones we truly love

I've been your friend
And I need you now
Just like you needed me then
And I came through somehow

Put down your walls
Put down your walls
And call

Call

Pick up your phone
I know you're home
I've been your friend
And I need you now