

Real As Rain

Joseph Arthur

If I show you who I am
Would you stay?
It's not hard to understand
Why you went away

Reaching out for love
To feel a hide out in your heart
And steal a graceful hand to hold
And help me to regain control
Real as any rain

Must there always be a prayer
To buy or sell
Pretending you were never there
As you crawl out of yourself

Reaching out for love
To feel a hide out in your heart
And steal a graceful hand to hold
And help me to regain control
Real as any rain

I watched you come
And I watched you turn away
With seagulls flying all along the shore
Asking you to stay

Something is always gonna come
Between me and you
Both of us know how to run
More than fallow thru

Reaching out for love
To feel a hide out in your heart
And steal a graceful hand to hold
And help me to regain control
Real as any rain

All your rain is gonna come down
Child of your pain
All your rain is gonna come down
Real As any rain
