

Shadows of Lies

Joseph Arthur

Lying next to you at night when you're sleeping
Wishing I could join you on the other side
When you shake, I wonder what are you dreaming
In the dead of night, there's no place I can hide

With wide-open eyes in the dark
Shadows of lies on my heart

The moon, it bleeds through winter's window freezing
My memories play movies in my mind
As sorrow sings for my child in Ohio
The nighttime brings every demon it can find

With wide-open eyes in the dark
Shadows of lies on my heart

And when you're dreaming
I'm running through your veins
And when I am dreaming
You're running through my veins

Lying next to you at night when you're sleeping
Wishing I could join you on the other side
When you shake, I wonder what are you dreaming
In the dead of night, there's no place I can hide

With wide-open eyes in the dark
Shadows of lies on my heart
On my heart
On my heart
On my heart
