Joseph Arthur

I know you're always alone Looking for someone, a home Don't wait for me I'll be all right In the ocean of your mind I know I've seen better days Walking through life like a maze But I can see You'll be alright In the ocean of my mind Turn on you light Shining vacancy With you I'm lost Like a shell in the sea But I'll pray for you I hope you will pray for me I know your always alone Looking for someone, a home I know you're always alone Looking for someone, a home Don't wait for me I'll be all right In the ocean of your mind And you'll be alright In the ocean of my mind
