

Heartbreak Girl

Joseph Vincent

She's standing over there not looking at me
It drives me crazy that this feeling won't leave
She's walking past me, she's what I adore
She bites her lip, gives me a wink, I'm yearning for more
Well she's a lady that's hard to resist
She's not just someone you could pass up and miss
The touch of her skin makes me curl up inside
So knock it off stop playing with me
Let's go for a ride

She's a heart breaker
You better believe
She's not gonna stop oh and she's coming for me
And you never know, it's so true
Cause when she's done with me then she'll be coming for you
She'll be coming

Well she's relentless it should be a crime
It's not her fault oh it's just how she's designed
How can something bitter be so sweet She'll make you fall in love and then she'll get up and leave
Oh she's gonna leave

She's a heart breaker
You better believe
She's not gonna stop oh and she's coming for me
And you never know, it's so true
Cause when she's done with me then she'll be coming for

Well, she hasn't felt what it feels like
To be played like a fool
Oh, she doesn't know all the things
That she caused you and put you through
So it's time to go
Cause now you know

She's a heart breaker
You better believe
She's not gonna stop oh and she's coming for me
And you never know, it's so true
Cause when she's done with me
No, no, no, no
When she's done with me

Well, she's a heart breaker
You better believe
She's not gonna stop oh and she's coming for me
And you never know, it's so true
Cause when she's done with me then she'll be coming for
For you

She'll be coming
You better watch out
Cause she's coming for you
