

Fall In Love Again

Josh Abbott Band

Verse 1

I'm sending tulips to where you work with a note and a bible verse and an "I Love You", hoping that you still do.
I'm sitting here when you pull in the drive.
I got a hug waiting for you inside and an "I'm sorry" too, baby I've been a fool.

Chorus

I wanna raise the bar higher.
I want you to feel inspired.
Baby tonight, can we fall in love again?
I know I tore your trust apart,
but if you find it in your heart to let me back in, I know we can...
we can fall in love again.

Verse 2

I'll take you down to San Antonio.
We'll see the river walk and the Alamo
and maybe the zoo, just wanna be with you.
Take a carriage ride under the stars,
it feels so good to have you in my arms
where you belong, baby it's been too long.
