

If I See You Tonight

Josh Abbott Band

Verse 1

You walked in with all your friends,
caught eyes with me and then turned your head.
Reluctantly started my way, probably thinking of what to say and you sat down.

Smiled at me and said hello.
Five minutes later it was time to go.
Before you head on out that door, a scene I've seen before there's something you should know.

Chorus

If I see you tonight don't you pretend that look in your eyes.
And don't you tell me things you don't mean like how you think of me
if I see you tonight.
And if I see you tonight I won't be holding back tears in my eyes.
I'll mean everything I say like girl I miss you today
if I see you tonight.

Verse 2

Six weeks later you called,
cried you made a mistake and would like to see if maybe we could try again, maybe do things like when we were both happy.

But I got bad news for you,
girl its your turn to feel lonely too.
You waited way to long, someone better came along but here's some words for you.
