

Miss You Again

Josh Abbott Band

Verse 1

Every now and again I see an old friend and they ask how you are.

They see in my eyes; they know I can't lie; I haven't seen you in years.

Called a buddy the other day, all he had to say was "Do you remember when?"

I said "yes I do," made me think about you and how I miss you again.

Chorus

I miss you again like words miss your name.

I miss you again like fire misses your flame.

There's a chance we'll fall in love in the end,
but until then I'll miss you again

Verse 2

So I'm driving around this damn night town but you're still everywhere.

I can't eat, I can't think, and God knows I can't sleep.

Do you know what it's like to close your eyes at night and visualize memories?

Guess I'll lie here awake, think about my mistakes and how I miss you again.

Bridge

There's a truth I can't explain, I wake up screaming your name.
And you're driving my heart insane about the way that I feel.
