

She's Like Texas

Josh Abbott Band

Verse 1

She's as free as blue bonnets in the summer.
She's as hot as the Padre Island sun.
Most of the time she's as warm and friendly
like the hills that surround Austin.

Chorus

She's as bright as the Dallas sky.
She always holds her head up high.
She loves the company of her family.
She has faith in God's greater plan.
She trusts I'm a good man.
That's why I'll always believe she's like Texas, and she likes me.

Verse 2

Her eyes are green like the trees in Nacogdoches.
Her teeth are white as cotton in the fall.
And when she laughs you'll always take notice
'cause her heart's charm will shine right through it all

Bridge

And her moods can change like the weather out in Lubbock.
But if you show her love, man she'll return it.
