

Slip Away

Josh Garrels

Hold on, before I slip away
The flames gone, dark I am afraid How strong, is flesh and blood I cannot, can take back what I've done

To you, my sweetest friend
I betrayed you, I walked away again Now all that's left, is what might have been Please forgive me, before we reach the end

Hold on, before I slip away
My loves gone cold, I've gone astray
How strong, is flesh and blood I cannot take back what I've done
