

I Want To Make You Cry

Josh Gracin

Turn the lights off
Better yet leave them on
Cause I want to see all there is to know
So I can take control
I know, yes, I know he's done you wrong
And its been so long since you had a man like me
That's willing to please

I want to make you cry
Watch pleasure fall from your eyes
With every touch of my hand
Well, I swear you won't go back to what you had before
You keep on wanting more
Well, just give me the chance baby to be the better man tonight

What's that you said
You don't want me to stop now?
So I keep on going
Make that sound and turn me on
Stop, right there
