99 Years

Josh Groban

Boy meets girl and the world stops turning She makes him forget all the rules he was learning They give a toast to the ones who never stop hoping There's not much to lean and eyes wide open And they look up high and wonder what the future's gonna hold Will we look back down on 99 years of a wonderful life Where we laughed till we cried and our love was stronger with e very fight There'll be a thousand moments for you to say "I told you" And a million more for us to say "I love you" So let's look forward to you and I looking back At 99 years like that At 99 years like that They build a house of love in the face of worry But life has a way of rewriting the story There were times when it looked like nothing could save them There were times when it looked like nothing could break them They keep promising each other what the future's gonna hold Will we look back down on 99 years of a wonderful life Where we laughed till we cried and our love was stronger with e very fight

There'll be a thousand moments for you to say "I told you" And a million more for us to say "I love you" So let's look forward to you and I looking back To 99 years

Of nothing unspoken With every day hoping That when we feel broken Our scars make us golden Is to choose you and I

Will we look back down on 99 years of a wonderful life Where we laughed till we cried and our love was stronger with e very fight There'll be a thousand moments for you to say "I told you" And a million more for us to say "I love you" So let's look forward to you and I looking back At 99 years like that Oh, at 99 years like that At 99 years like that
