

Love Only Knows

Josh Groban

I've tried to hold this back so long
And we're always such a good thing when it's gone
Would it be alright, if we just left our heads tonight

Take me away from this old game
Of saying that we're both too much the same

Would it be alright, if I just stayed with you tonight
And before I go, will I ever see you again
She said love only knows

Love only knows
If we'll give into fear and choose life undercover
She said love only knows
If it's special enough then we'll choose one another
We'll choose each other

You were the secret I loved to keep
The name I would only sing in my sleep
Would it be alright, if we just lose ourselves tonight
And if you let go, will you reach out again
She said love only knows

Love only knows,
If we'll give into fear and choose life undercover
She said love only knows,
If it's special enough then we'll choose one another
We'll choose each other

And I can't breathe without you and I don't
And I can't live without love and I won't
And I won't

Love only knows
If we'll give into fear and choose life undercover
She said love only knows if it's special enough
Then we'll choose one another
Love only knows,
How your arms pull me in like the tide pulls me under
She said love only knows
Just how long we can run before we lose each other
And we need each other
And I can't live without you and I won't
