

late nights
early morning
we talked until there was nothing left to say it was strange the war was on but ive never felt so safe

[chorus]
but ive never seen better days. better days no ive never seen better days....

you laugh
you understood
something unfamiliar
and i didnt think, i could feel this way
i was cold
and tired
and the world outside was hungry

[chorus]
and lines were tragic, but it didnt seem to matter it was easier than to turn the other way from the ruins of rage
i guess we were scared

[chorus]
and when I kissed you
concealing my confusion
o what i knew, but just couldn't say i loved you, i loved you
o how i love you

[chorus]
the end is here...
the end is here.....
and I've never seen, better days...
better days
no I've never seen, better days...
