

Hey Katie

Josh Kelley

Hey Katie,
You really look great tonight
I think about you all the time
Your color up my life
Just maybe (maybe)
You'll let me take you home tonight
I've gotta have you by my side
To wake up with the sunrise
Its hard to drive when your putting on your makeup
Cant stay in the lines
Shaping up my heart for all the love ill be giving to you
I knew it from the start the starring role for my movie was you
I knew it was you
I'm playing it tough so you cant change your mind
Hey Katie,
About 6 o'clock tonight
Ill be waiting by the curbside
Practicing my lines
Just maybe (maybe)
You could help me hit my mark
And i could try to play the part
Memorizing lines
You could be Mia Farrow
I can be Billy Joel
Shaping up my heart for all the love ill be giving to you
I knew it from the start the starring role for my movie was you
I knew it was you
I'm playing it tough so you cant change your mind
Woohah
Making love in the middle of the day time
Sun shines hot on my back
Shaping up my heart for all the love ill be giving to you
I knew it from the start the starring role for my movie was you
I knew it was you
Its gonna take a lot to stop my heart keep pumping for two
Oh i knew it from the start
The starring role for my movie was you
And I'm playing it tough so you cant change your mind
