

Where Two Oceans Meet

Josh Pyke

Where two oceans meet
I will find you there
'neath the wind worn heath
Under cliff tops bare

And I will find you there
And I will cover thee
And you will cling to me
Where two oceans meet

Where two oceans meet
I will find you there
'neath the wind worn heath
Under cliff tops bare

And I will find you there
And I will cover thee
And you will cling to me
Where two oceans meet

And when our days are few
I will cling to you
And you will sing for me
When our days are few

And when our candle's burned
We will both return
'neath the wind worn heath
Where two oceans meet
