

Wildfires

Josh Ritter

You must be living on wildfires
You must be living on wildfires
That's why your eyes
Are smoke and ash

You must be living on earthquakes
You must be living on earthquakes
Must be why my heart breaks
Every time you pass

Oh no matter how I try
I just watch you blow by
In a lens

Ahh, ahh, ah ah ah

You must be living on front lines
You must be living on front lines
Must be why sometimes
I cant get past

You must be living on land mines
You must be living on land mines
Must be why your crying
Broken glass

Oh no matter how I try
I gotta watch you blow by
In a lens

Ohh, ohh, ohh

With all your living on landslides
With all your living on flood tides
It's a wonder how you rise
Above all that

Oh, no matter how I try
I gotta watch you blow by
In a lens

Yeah, no matter how I try
I gotta watch you blow by
In a lens
