

Colors of the Spirit

Journey

We are one, we are one

Distant rhythm in a troubled sky
Angry clouds divide the sun
Feels like thunder and so do I
Bloody silence has begun
Flying like a wounded dove
Tomorrow comes undone

Surrender don't come easily
We try to get over, over
Everybody feels the rain falling together, together

Many colors of the spirit
Many lives below the sun
We are colors of the spirit
We are many, we are one

Ask the question, what's goin' on?
Why raging children run?
Where's the fathers legacy?
Where's the harvest of the son?
Close your eyes and tell me what you see
I see the same thing, same thing

Many colors of the spirit
Many lives below the sun
We are colors of the spirit
We are many, we are one

No, surrender don't come easily
We try to get over, over

Many colors of the spirit
Many lives below the sun
We are colors of the spirit
We are many, we are one

We are one, we are one
