

Daydream

Journey

Shining in the silver moon
Crystal ships are sailing to the sea
Dream the joys of pearls and gold
And our angel's wings in flight unfold

Fly, fly by my window, flyin' so free, yeah
Yes, they fly, fly by my window
Yes, those bright diamonds once were stone
Rollin' down a silver stream
Yes, those bright diamonds once were stone

Sail on silver wings of fire
Sailing dreams beyond the silver moon
In silver clouds that fly so high
Live the dreams you search but can't find

Yes they fly, fly by my window, flyin' so free, yeah
Oh they fly, fly by my window
Yes, those bright diamonds once were stone
Rollin' down a silver stream
Yeah, those bright diamonds once were stones
