Do You Recall

Journey

Do you recall, that lonely summer day? We were together and things got in our way

Well, so you think that it's all over And you know it's gone to stay Oh oh, after stormy weather Does the sun shine every day?

Yes, I recall, the things you said that day You told me that you were leavin' 'Cause we can't go on this way

Oh, so you think that it's all over And you know it's gone to stay Oh oh, after stormy weather Does the sun shine every day?

Yes, it's the lovin' things That keeps us wondering Yes, it's the lovin' things Ooh, baby, love

Girl, it's the lovin' things That keep us wonderin' Yes, it's the lovin' things Ooh, girl, say you'll stay

You think that it's all over And you know it's gone to stay Oh oh, after stormy weather Does the sun shine every day?

Well, so you think that it's all over And you know it's gone to stay Oh oh, after stormy weather Does the sun shine every day?

Does the sun shine every day? No no
