

Live And Breathe

Journey

1. I've been waiting for the sky to clear
To get me out of here, to get me on my way and go
I've been waiting for a sign to appear
To show me the way to a place I've never known
All I have are my dreams
Your love and blind faith
There in the sky spins a wheel
It's givin' me the feelin' that my dream came true today

R1: There's a place where we two can be together
Once the clouds are gone we'll both move on
In search of all we've dreamed
There'll come a day... blue skies endless and forever
Well, that time has come
I've found the sun in you, I live and breathe

2. From the moment that I close my eyes
Feel the sun it rise, hear it echo through my soul
For the first time in this young man's life
Makes me feel alive, fills my heart and makes me stronger
All I have are my dreams
Your love and blind faith
There in the sky spins a wheel
It's givin' me the feelin' that my dream came true today

R1: There's a place...

*: Someplace closer to both our hearts
Somewhere further than where we are
Just as long as there's hope enough
Long as I live and breathe

R2: There's a place where we two can be together
Once the clouds are gone we'll both move on
In search of all we've dreamed
There'll come a day... blue skies endless and forever
Well, that time has come
We've found the sun in you, I live and breathe
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Yey, yey, yey, yey, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah
