Journey

Sitting in the corner of a room, thinkin' of you Wonderin' what you're doing now we're apart No use cryin', tears can't reach you now Memories, fulfilling dreams

You used to be so good to me, yeah
I can't live without you
I'd like to be, yeah, in your fantasy, baby
Part of you is me

Walking across the clouds, hope I see you there
Be it day or nighttime, I don't really care
Hope you see me too, before I meet my end
Somethin' stole your life away, I know I can't pretend

You used to be so good to me, baby I can't live without you I'd like to be in your fantasy, baby Part of you is me
