

I'm Gonna Break Your Heart

Joy Williams

Just so you know, I'm gonna break your heart
Just so you know, I'm gonna make a mess
I've got things unsaid inside my head that I wish you knew that I can't confess
I'm gonna break your heart

I shouldn't keep you, but I can't let go
The way you look at me, it's like you know its like you know You're afraid to ask I'm afraid to tell
Just so you know I'm gonna break your heart
Just so you know I'm gonna make a mess
I've got things unsaid inside my head that I wish you
knew that I can't confess
I'm gonna break your heart

Got reservations bout you and me
And if we pull the string things will start unraveling I'm afraid to stay, you're afraid to leave

Just so you know I'm gonna break your heart
Just so i know I'm gonna make a mess
I've got things unsaid inside my head that I wish you knew that I can't confess I'm gonna break your heart

Ooooo break your heart oooooo oooooo oooooo oooo ooo oo ooooooooo
Break your heart oooo oooo oooo

Just so you know I'm gonna break your heart
Just so you know I'm gonna make a mess
I've got things unsaid inside my head that I wish you know that I can't confess Like I'm gonna break your heart With all these things inside my head how could you still love me even when..

I'm gonna break your heart
