

Lover, Find Your Cover

Joy Williams

Best things always happen in life
Best things always happen when you're not looking
It's the little things that can go missing
Best things always happen in a moment
Best things they can happen without a word
And the silence in the dark night
Let the evening sing her song, let the tears fall
Let the moonlight wash away all the earth
'Cuz all your secrets, you don't need them
All of your secrets, you don't need them
All of your secrets, you don't need them
(OooOoooo)
Oh lover, find your cover in the dark, in the dark
You will be safe, safe in the dark night
