Spiders

When love was fresh Like a web we'd mesh Nothing felt better than your flesh Against my flesh

One fatal slip One rip, a tear Touch me now and every single hair On my body stands on end.

So don't touch me anymore 'Cause it feels like spiders Like spiders all over me Like spiders; Like spiders all over me.

In the darkest corners of my mind You creep Underneath my pillow at night When I sleep Those hands I once Longed to feel... I want to squash them under My hell.

So don't touch me anymore 'Cause it feels like spiders Like spiders all over me Like spiders; Like spiders all over me.

I never thought it would end this way I never thought I'd see the day I never thought I'd hear myself say

Don't touch me anymore 'Cause it feels like spiders Like spiders all over me Like spiders; Like spiders all over me. Like spiders all over me Like spiders; Like spiders all over me. Joydrop
