Oh my god, there's nobody who can set me right I've been sent to torch the palace down in broad daylight

I wanna know who you told to the one laying on the floor Frozen to the core
I wanna know who you told there's nobody anymore
Nobody anymore

Oh my god, I'm a giant with an appetite
Pushing people to the ground, running round the halls at night

I wanna know who you told to the one laying on the floor Frozen to the core
I wanna know who you told, there's nobody anymore
Nobody anymore

I've been creepin' round and saw a little thing I didn't like y ou tried to hide
I've been creepin' round and saw a little thing I didn't like y ou tried to hide, from me

I wanna know who you took, there's nobody any... Nobody anymore Nobody anymore
