

Feels like a Lie

Joywave

Time came and they put me in my place
Red eggs just caught it and replaced
Be human and let it go someday
But I've got a storm above my rib cage

Now that this new boy turn it and moves
Now that this hole is logically moved

It feels, it feels like a lie
Yeah it feels, yeah it feels like a lie

My voice floats across sound waves
Oh my mouth is motion this in a stray

Now that this new boy turn it and moves
Now that this hole is logically moved

It feels, it feels like a lie
Yeah it feels, yeah it feels like a lie
It feels, it feels like a lie
Yeah it feels, yeah it feels like a lie

Feels like a lie
Yeah it feels
Feels like a lie

It feels, it feels like a lie
Yeah it feels, yeah it feels like a lie
It feels, it feels like a lie
Yeah it feels, yeah it feels like a lie
