You said to stay together Cross your heart hope to die What they said it is forever And now I understand why

Cause I'm spending my time tryin' to figure out what it is Cause I spent my last dime, and I ain't got shit to give (Yeah) Still you need more, more? I guess love ain't enough I guess love ain't enough (Yeah) Love ain't enough (No-oh) Love ain't enough I guess love ain't enough (No-oh)

You said you needed more So I pointed out That you never reach the world until the water's gone Everything you needed I gave to you (Oooh) But the clock's really pointing past too late for you
