Blood Red Skies

Judas Priest

As the sun goes down, I move around Keeping to the shadows Life, hangs by a thread And I've heard it said, that I'll not see tomorrow If that's my destiny, it'll have to be So I'll face the future Running out of time I'm on the line But I'll go down fighting Felt the hand of justice Telling wrong from right Threw me out upon the street In the middle of the night Cybernetic heartbeat Digital precise Pneumatic fingers nearly had me in their vice Not begging you I'm telling you You won't break me You won't make me You won't take me Under blood red skies You won't break me You won't take me I'll fight you under blood red skies Through a shattered city, watched by laser eyes Overhead the night squad glides The decaying paradise Automatic sniper With computer sights Scans the bleak horizon for its victim of the night They're closing in

They'll never win

You won't break me You won't take me You won't make me Under blood red skies

You won't break me You won't take me I'll fight you under Blood red skies

As the end is drawing near Standing proud, I won't give in to fear As I die a legend will be born I will stand, I will fight You'll never take me alive I'll stand my ground I won't go down

You won't break me You won't make me You won't take me Under blood red skies

You won't break me You won't take me Just I'll face you under Blood red skies

You'll never take me alive I'm telling you Hands of justice I will stand, I will fight Never surrender As the sun goes down I won't give in to fear
