

Bullet Train

Judas Priest

Sunrise showing every flaw
Paying for the night before
Dark eyes, scanning every vein
Exploding - cannot stand the strain

With each new mile
Standing on trial

They death defy me
Scrutinize me
And questionize my
Strong denial

Bullet bullet train
Piercing through my brain

Windows illuminating stains
Breakdown closing in again
Freefall as I close my eyes
Voices talking many lies

Changing my course
Breathing exhaust

Blurred and scorched
As we distort
By gravity
Of such G-force

Bullet bullet train
Piercing through my brain

Breakdown close my eyes
Voices talking many lies
Stained glass bursting in
Shattering my world again
Freefall but never can
Ever reach the ground again
Dark eyes scanning in Feel my mind explode within

Wanting much more
Near to death's door

I implore you
To ignore
The screams of all
Who fall before

Bullet bullet train
Piercing through my brain

Bullet
