

Cold Blooded

Judas Priest

I have no face, I have no mind
I have no senses left, you see I'm blind
I feel no faith, I hear no truth
The reason is I have, have uncome loose

There is no way I have no voice
I have no say, I have no choice
I feel no pain, or suffering
It's just cold blood that runs through me

I lay here numb, my conscience clear
And all the dissesncy transfused to fear
I feel no faith, I hear no truth
The reason is I have, have uncome loose

There is no way I have no voice
I have no say, I have no choice
I feel no pain, or suffering
It's just cold blood that runs through me

You suck my life and all I live for
I left fortune cold logging envy here

There is no way I have no voice
I have no say, I have no choice
I feel no pain, or suffering
It's just cold blood that runs through me
