

Love Zone

Judas Priest

Been awake all night, can't get no sleep
I need a steel blue heart walkin' down the street
With your razor nails, and your painted smile
Your gonna get richer, I gotta get wild

Any time you want to
Any way you need
Get your love for money there, satisfaction guaranteed

Wo oh, love zone
You know what I mean
Wo oh, love zone
Live that fantasy

I'm behind the wheel, throttle open wide
The gas tanks full, do you wanna ride?
Drivin' in the fast lane late at night
I can't keep my eyes off your red tail light

You know where we're going
I know where we are
Set the rear view mirror for the backseat of the car

Wo oh, love zone
You know what I mean
Wo oh, love zone
Live that fantasy

In your leather and chrome you're all the rage
All you want to do is get backstage
You heard all the stories, are they true?
The rock 'n' roll circus is calling you

When you get there baby
You'll be hypnotised
Never seen nothin' like it no
You won't believe your eyes

Wo oh, love zone
You know what I mean
Wo oh, love zone
Live that fantasy

Wo oh, love zone
You know what I mean
Wo oh, love zone
Live that fantasy

Everybody get in
Everybody get in that love zone
