Steeler

Judas Priest

Catch the play now, eye to eye Don't let chances pass you by Always someone at your back Biding their time for attack

Check for decoys, stay sharp-edged Double-crossers get your head Carpet-baggers bluff and strike Kiss of Judas, spider-like

Waiting like jackals
To sneak up and trick you
Wolves in sheep's clothing
Slow death in consoling

Lurking in shadows
They pounce least expected
When you come to
They'll have gone right through you

Tricksters, jilters play their game Sleight-of-handers, all the same Masquerader in his lair Wants to tangle in your hair
