

Madonna

Jude.

Lover come and set me free from my restrain
Take the rags away that bind me
Stare me down and cut me deeply to the bone
Give me every tooth and blind me

You are Madonna, you Lady Divine
You are part Mother Theresa and a valentine
Some man's pariah and a slippery slope
But to me you are the fire and I fly to my hope

Mother teaching me now lessons from the past
In faded photo albums lying open on the floor
She heals me with a Nikon camera captured laugh
And with a wink she sets me free forever more

So consume me now and burn me to the marrow
Heat me up like the world can never do
Tear my heart out from my body if you have to and Then swallow me to prove that I am you

You are Madonna, you are lady divine
You are part Mother Theresa and a valentine
Some man's pariah and a slippery slope
But to me you are the fire and I fly to my...

You are Madonna
You're lady divine
You are part Mother Theresa and a valentine
Some man's pariah and a slippery slope
But to me you are the fire and I fly to my

I will fly away
I'll fly
I will take these wings and fly away
I'll take these
I'll take these wings and fly away
