Whom Gods Destroy

Jughead's Revenge

I put this world aside Takes me too long to decide Scribe these gods onto my eyes That burn this world I left behind So what's in store for me Contrive a dose of sanity A person too but you can't see Dormant state society Say that I don't belong Views on me you've got all wrong How can you know my life Corrective shit now put it right Throw this world aside Bow down to ones who tell you lies Scribe these gods onto my eyes That burn this world I left behind
