

For Believers

Juice Newton

Go to sleep
Close your eyes
Soon the angels
Will begin to fly
Don't ask why
Angels fly
They only fly for believers
Like you and I
Once when I was so much younger
Much the same as you are now
With a heart so filled with wonder
I heard the thunder
I saw the angels fly!
And so be very still
Oh, so still
Because the angels will fly
When you close your eyes
