

Break Apart

Julia Stone

Break apart the things you see,
And all that's in between.
Break apart things holding on,
And the people that we did wrong.

We got a lot to lose.
We got a lot to lose.
Darling, we could use
Some honesty, honestly.

Break apart the things you heard,
You can have the final word, my dear.
Break apart the things we feel,
It was always so unreal.

We got a lot to lose.
We got a lot to lose.
We got a lot to lose.
Darling, we could use
Some honesty, honestly.
