

Where Does The Love Go?

Julia Stone

Love comes and goes like he knows
What he wants to do
It's here then it's there, doesn't really seem to care
If I'm in or out with you

We're lovers today then it changes
It the blink of an eye
And I would stand here forever if I believed
I could ever feel the same way again in time

Where does the love go?
Where does the love go?
Where does the love go?
Where does the love go? Go, go

Love come and goes like he's got
Somewhere else he needs to be
And he rushes out the door
Before I get a chance to ask
Love, why he wants to leave

You're standing over there with my father
On the wrong side of the room
And something inside me dies
And I wish I could feel the way I used to but I don't

Where does the love go?
Where does the love go?
Where does the love go?
Where does the love go? Go, go, go

Love comes and goes
Like he's got another home away from me
Got a spare set of keys
And a house on the beach, I know, I know

Well love, he gets tired and he decides to run away
Run way, run away, run away
Leaves me standing here with your broken heart
What can I say? What can I say? But

Where does the love go?
Where does the love go?
Where does the love go?
Where does the love go? Go, go, go