

Cry In The Dark

Juliana Hatfield

Do you cry in the dark because it's easier to be alone than to talk?

When the words aren't working and you don't know how to explain these thoughts

Every look and every motion has a deeper meaning
Everybody hurts nobody only when they're dreaming

Do you cry in the dark?

The light hurts when it hits your face

You don't want anyone to see you this way

You only want to be loved and taken away by someone

So you cry in the dark

And the picture of you holding hands by the fire is fading fast
And your heart is closing and you don't know how to get off this track

Every day you mime a prayer though your faith is shaken
Your godmother has got nobody because everybody's taken

Do you cry in the dark?

The light hurts when it hits your face

You don't want anyone to see you this way

You only want to be loved and taken away by someone

So you cry in the dark

This emotion is an ocean

The waves are getting high

I'll find an island, call it mine

I'm swimming for my life

Do you cry in the dark?

The light hurts when it hits your face

You don't want anyone to see you this way

You only want to be loved and taken away by someone

So you cry in the dark
