

Sunday Blues

Julie London

I ain't gonna get those Sunday blues no more
I ain' gonna walk that lonesome tear-stained floor
I never knew much about love
Till you walked into my heart
I wasn't happy without love
But at least I wasn't torn apart
On Saturday night you swear you're mine alone
Then Sunday arrives and you don't even phone
I know you're gonna come knockin'
But I ain't gonna answer the door
I ain't gonna get those Sunday blues no more
