

Death To Analog

Julien-K

There's no right to survive
Got to fight, stay alive
There's no right to survive
Got to fight, stay alive

Nothing is simple, wanting, waiting
Nobody knows when the end is coming
Something seething this inner meaning
Nobody knows where the flood is going

There's no right to survive
Got to fight, stay alive
There's no right to survive
Got to fight, stay alive

Something seething this inner meaning
Nobody knows where the flood is going
Nothings simple, wanting, waiting
Nobody knows when the end is coming

Motion, upwards and downwards
Motion, upwards and downwards
Motion, upwards and downwards
Motion, upwards and downwards

Motion, upwards and downwards
Motion, upwards and downwards
Motion, upwards and downwards
Motion, upwards and downwards

There's no right to survive
Got to fight, stay alive
There's no right to survive
Got to fight, stay alive

There's no right to survive
Got to fight, stay alive
There's no right to survive
Got to fight, stay alive
