I wanna know your name
Feel your touch
Your eyes, your eyes are burning
I want too much

Nothing to do

I can hear this thing
It wants so much
To feel your pain
To feel your touch

And the siren sound takes control
There's no one left to save your soul
There's no one left to take you into the night

And the fog rolls through
A blue midnight
With nothing to do
It'll be alright

Feel your pain
Feel your touch
