

Not Broken Yet

Juliet Simms

Back when we first kissed it felt like every star above our heads aligned Every little piece fell into place and every single moment made us feel alive

Never used to be so complicated
No in between just black and white

When everything turns to grey
I still see you
When the cold won't go away
I can still feel you
Even when the sky is falling and I'm hanging on by a thread
I'm standing on the edge of nothing
But I know it's not broken
I know it's not broken yet

Funny how life throws us punches you kick and scream but it just keeps coming on Maybe every dream that seemed to fade will find another way to live again some day

Never used to be so complicated
No in between just black and white

When everything turns to grey
I still see you
When the cold won't go away
I can still feel you
Even when the sky is falling
and I'm hanging on by a thread
I'm standing on the edge of nothing
But I know it's not broken
I know it's not broken yet

As time goes on, we still discover Traces of hope in each other
With every ending
We can find a beginning start it over again

When everything turns to grey
I still see you
When the cold won't go away
I can still feel you
Even when the sky is falling
and I'm hanging on by a thread
I'm standing on the edge of nothing
But I know it's not broken yet

When everything turns to grey
I still see you
When the cold won't go away
I can still feel you
Even when the sky is falling
and I'm hanging on by a thread

I'm standing on the edge of nothing
But I know it's not broken
I know it's not broken yet
oh ohh oh ohh
I know it's not broken yet
oh ohh oh ohh
I know it's not broken yet
