

Calling You

Jully Black

I don't know why you told me lie after lie
Better off you tell the truth 'cause lies I despise
Baby love, baby love

? is started by admiration
I thought together we could build our own nation
I was always there for you, no matter what we went through

I don't know why you told me lie after lie
Better off you told the truth cause lies I despise
Now I'm sitting all alone waiting by the phone but you're not home

Baby love, I'm calling you
And you're not picking up you're phone
Baby love, I'm calling you
And I know you're home

Baby love, I'm calling you
And you're not picking up you're phone
Baby love, I'm calling you
And I know you're home
Baby love, baby love

One minute you love me next minute you don't
I tell you live you're life, I live my life you won't
You gave away my lovin' now you keep frontin'
Like you ain't doing nothin'

I don't know why you told me lie after lie
Better of you told the truth cause lies I despise
Now I'm sitting all alone waiting by the phone but you're not home

Baby love, I'm calling you
And you're not picking up you're phone
Baby love, I'm calling you
And I know you're home

Baby love, I'm calling you
And you're not picking up you're phone
Baby love, I'm calling you
And I know you're home

Baby, I'm a diamond, gonna keep shinning
Stay up on your grime and you'll be thinking
I'ma be home cryin', sleepin' and mournin'
Before your lovin', my baby love

I don't know why you told me lie after lie
Better of you tell the truth, cause lies I despise
Now I'm sitting all alone waiting by the phone but you're not home
Baby love, baby love, baby love, baby love

My baby love
I don't know why
My baby love
Better off you tell the truth

Baby love, I'm calling you
And you're not picking up you're phone
Baby love, I'm calling you
And I know you're home

Baby love, I'm calling you
And you're not picking up you're phone
Baby love, I'm calling you
And I know you're home
