My Heart Is On The Ocean

Jump, Little Children

Old man walking on the old footpath Old man walking with his first son Oh son, my heart is on the ocean And my eyes are burning from the salt sea Oh son, my heart is on the ocean And my eyes are burning from the salt sea

The sun is steady as the sun, it will rise Morning, the wind is in the willow Oh son, the wind is in the willow And the morning is steady as the sunrise Oh son, the wind is in the willow And the morning is steady as the sunrise

My heart is on the ocean My heart is on the ocean And my eyes are burning from the sea

The ship is sailing as the ships, they do sail Over the blue and misty water Oh son, your ship is in the harbor And your bag is tugging at your shoulder Oh son, your ship is in the harbor And your bag is tugging at your shoulder

The seagull is flying as seagulls do fly Crossing, crossing over the ocean Oh son, you're crossing over the ocean And the seagull is flying as the bird flies Oh son, you're crossing over the ocean And the seagull is flying as the bird flies

My heart is on the ocean My heart is on the ocean And my eyes are burning from the sea

The sun is steady as the sun, it will rise Farewell, farewell, my first son Oh son, my heart is on the ocean And my eyes are burning from the salt sea Oh son, my heart is on the ocean And my eyes are burning from the salt sea

My heart is on the ocean My heart is on the ocean My heart is on the ocean And my eyes are burning from the sea
